Independence And Peace Of Mind

We have 24-hour staffing so our residents always have someone looking after them.

Our Executive Directors meet with every resident twice a month to check in on their personal needs and desires.

Dining. It's More Than A Meal, It's Magic.

Just because our residents aren't home doesn't mean they can't enjoy everything that comes with a home-cooked meal. Our meals give our residents a chance to make new friends and share laughs. So talk to us and learn how we can make your loved one feel like one of the family.

Nine Chefs, Nine Medals, One Competition

Independence Village Chefs Dominate At Dorsey Culinary Academy

Nine chefs from Independence Village and our sister company, StoryPoint, competed in the American Culinary Federation Competition held at Dorsey Culinary Academy in Pontiac. Out of the 80 chefs that participated, our nine were the only ones from the senior industry, each bringing home a medal.

Activities And Fun

Staying active shouldn't be work, it should be fun. From a relaxing afternoon taking in scenic views to day-long trips, we keep each day filled with activities that every resident can enjoy.

- We meet with our residents every month to ensure their ideas and talents get an opportunity to shine.
- Our residents have the opportunity to lead their own activities to share their passions with the rest of the community.

We have six dimensions of our activities to ensure everyone finds a way to pursue their passions:

- Social
- Spiritual
- Physical
- Intellectual
- Artistic
- Philanthropic

"There's room to roam around. I can visit with people if I choose to or not. Always lots of activities to do if I care to do them, and being close to my family."
