

Resident Spotlight

Janette Shaff, a Michigan native since the age of 4, retired from crunching numbers as a bookkeeper at John Hancock Insurance for a whopping 35 years. Now, she's been a happy resident at StoryPoint for nearly 2 years. Janette and her husband of 58 years resided in Cooper Township. Janette is a proud mom of 2 and grandmother of 4. Don't miss out on Bingo Wednesdays hosted by Janette at the Inn - she's ready to bring on the fun and welcomes you to join the party!

Associate Spotlight

Please congratulate Tina Grinnell, our March Associate of the Month. Tina has been with the community for 20 years. Tina started as a CNA at The Springs and transitioned to the Assisted Living last April. Tina takes special care creating meaningful experiences for residents who don't get out as often as others. She makes sure that residents in her program, as well as in independent living are able to join in activities that they enjoy.
